

GA Northwestern Technical College Culinary Arts Program

Project Information

Originally constructed in 1903, the charming and historic Woodlee House has been completely renovated and is now home to the GNTC Culinary Arts Program.

In this new state-of-the-art facility, students can receive diploma course paths through a combination of hands-on class training and traditional classroom learning.

Products

JSI
Fixtures Furniture
Teknion
Hekman
Loewenstein
Community

Project Team

Furnishings:
Office Interiors

